Statement regarding Dishonest Practice

The School's interpretation of what constitutes dishonest practice includes the following:

Plagiarism: Using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own.

Collusion: Work undertaken in whole or in part in conjunction with another person or persons, but submitted as if it had been completed by the named author alone.

Ghost writing: The use of another party to prepare all or part of an item of work submitted for assessment.

For a full definition of these terms, refer to the School's Policy on Plagiarism, Collusion, Copying and Ghost writing, downloadable at:
<http://www.arts.canterbury.ac.nz/sociology/documents/Plagiarism-statement-June-2011.pdf>

Under the University Regulations, evidence of any of these or other forms of dishonest practice by any student represents grounds for disciplinary action and may result in penalties ranging from denial of credit for the work in question to exclusion from the University.

This statement is not intended to discourage students from having discussions with each other about how to approach a particular assigned task, and incorporating general ideas coming out of such discussions into their own individual submissions.

I have read the above statement and confirm that the work I am submitting is my own.
